The Trojan

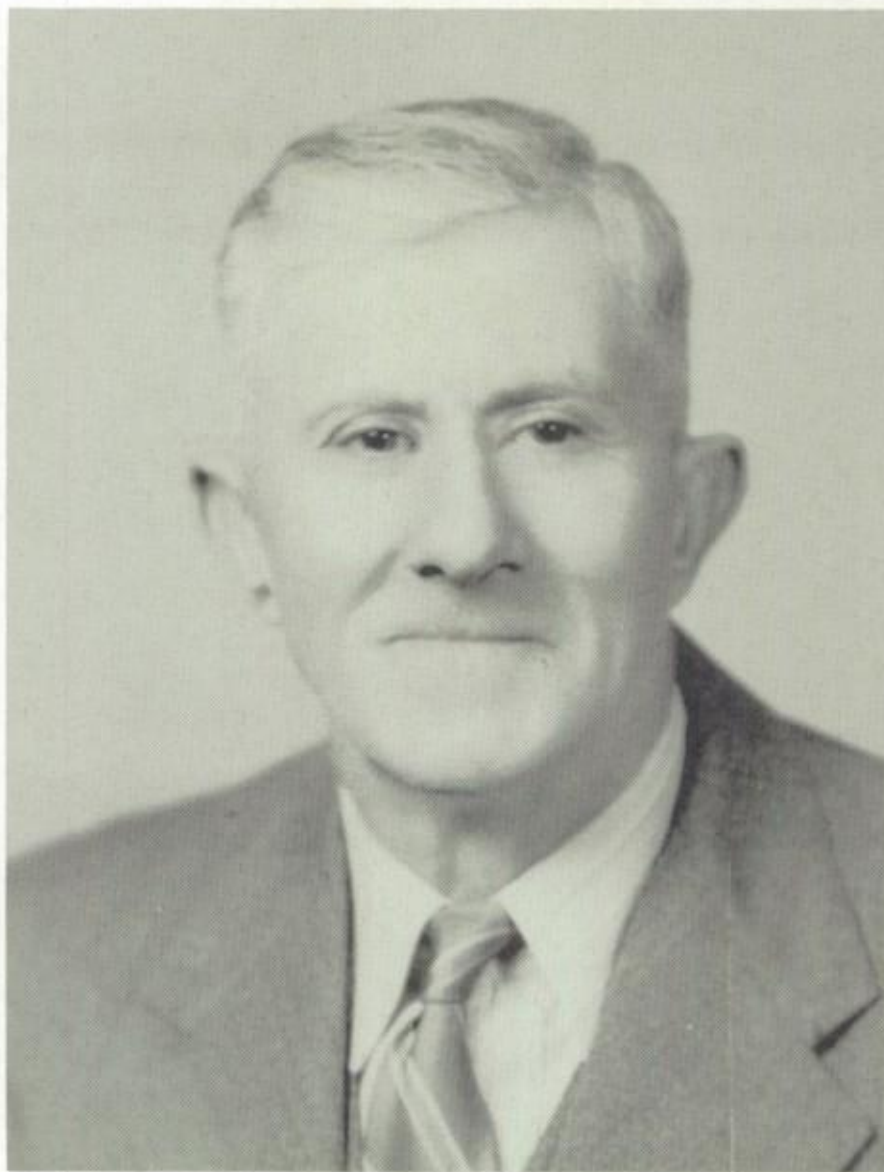

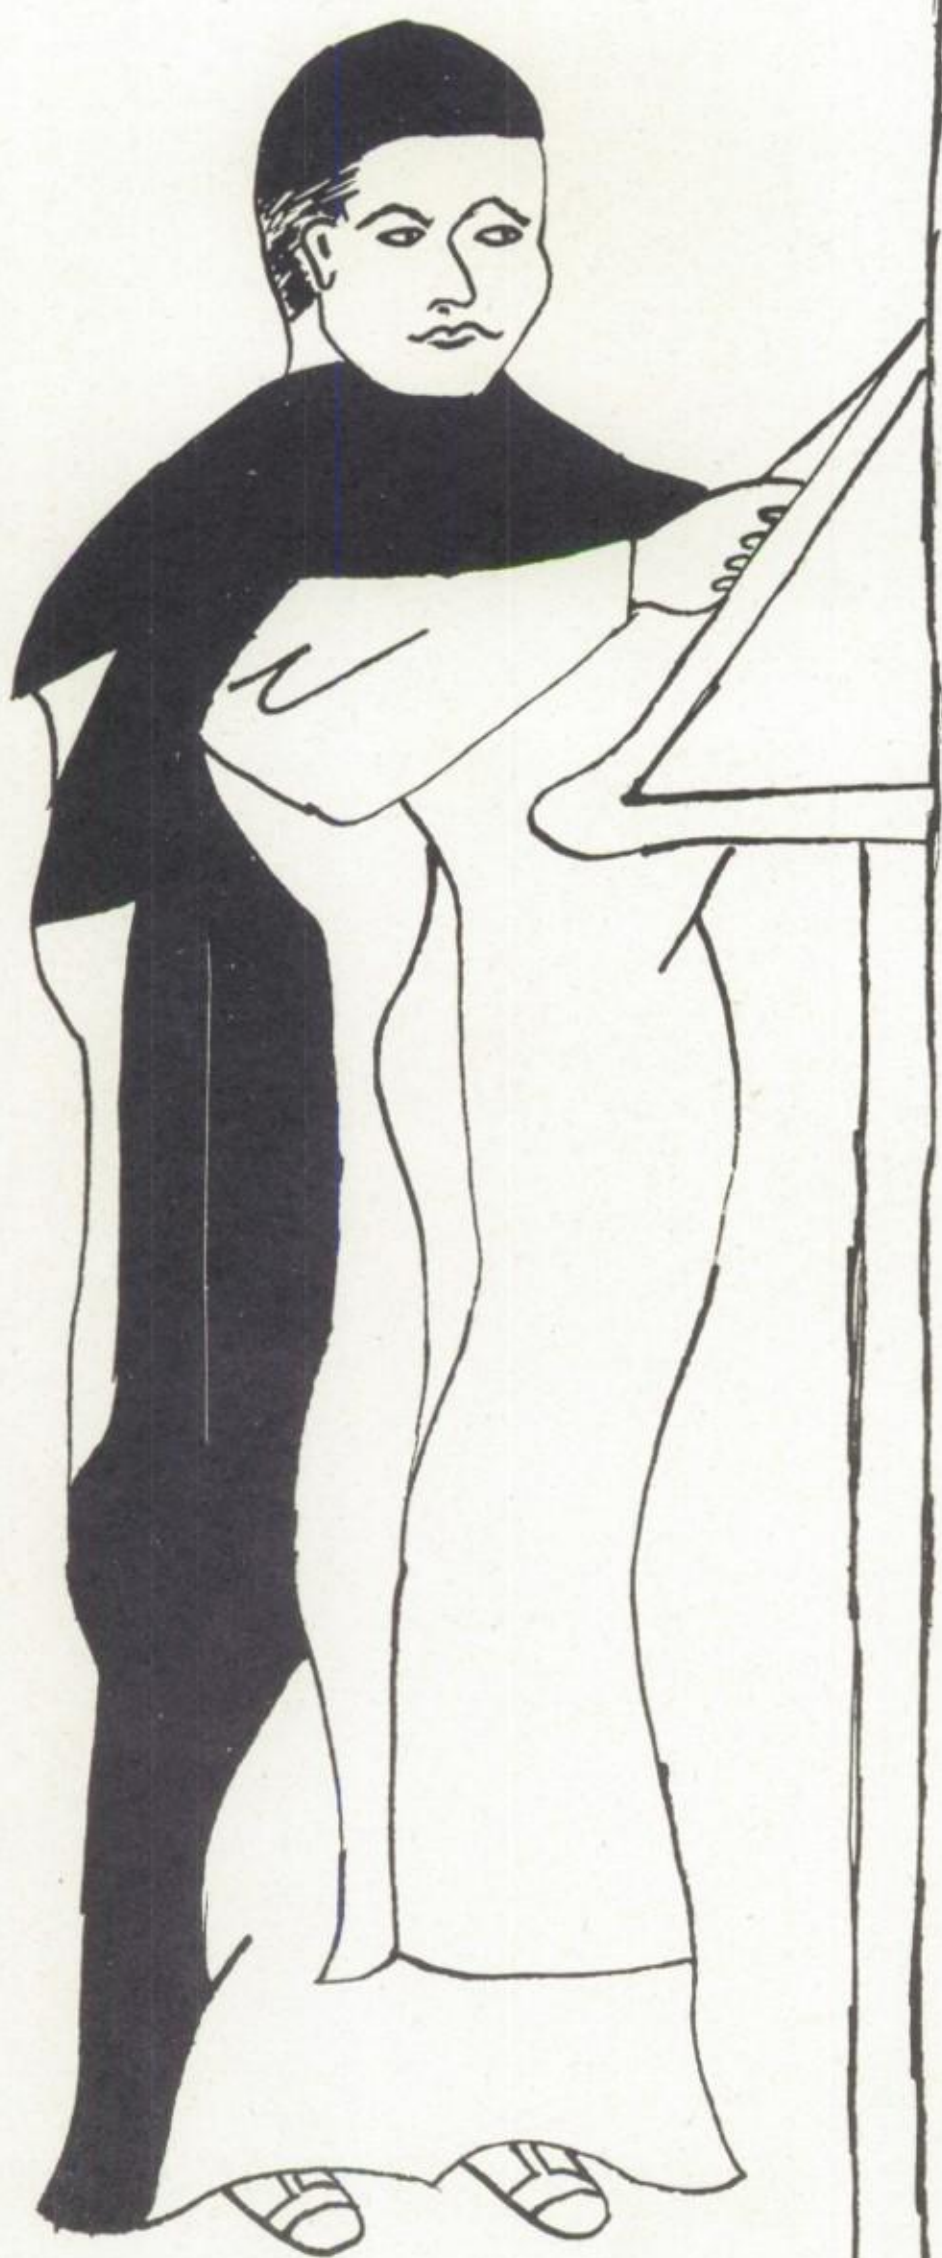

The Trojan

We, the class of 1957, wish to dedicate this, our yearbook, in appreciation for his untiring friendship during our school years and his devoted interest in our problems and responsibilities, to Mr. Alvey Surface, our loyal friend.

class history

In the fall of 1945, the following seniors of 1957 entered the halls of Center Grove for the first time: Suzy Stewart, Joyce Core, Sandy Day, Billie Duke, Sue Doty, Kay Kiphart, Bob Wise, Fred Nuffer, Beverly Boltz, Rushh Reynolds, Ruby Demaree, and Chestora Royston. The teacher who started them on the road to success was Mrs. Ruth Cook.

During the next six years the following students entered our class: Eleanor DeMott, Lynda Sells, Janice Hawkins, Ray Stewart, Phyllis Clearwater, Jack Ramsey, Margie Ross, Norman Ford, Roy Swartz, Robert King, Howard Peters, Phil Plummer, Jean Lister, Jim Dresslar, Oren Hyatt, Lee Wolverton, Larry Percy, Bill Meek, Marcia Whitaker, Jenile Weddle, Burnadine See, and Jackie Strouse.

After having six successful years, we were looking forward to entering junior high and changing classes. Our junior high years were fun but still we couldn't wait to enter high school.

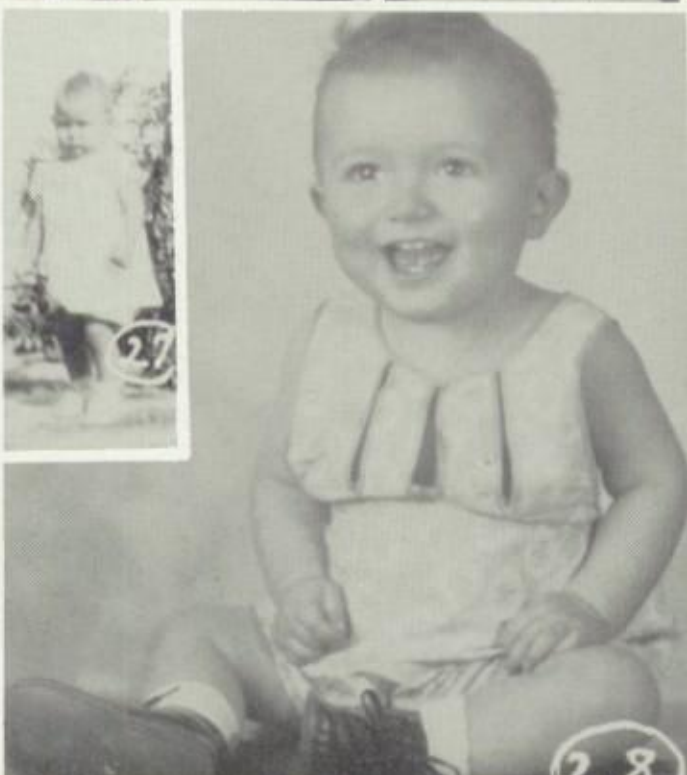

As Freshmen we were looking forward with some misgivings to being initiated by the different organizations. New members who were wondering just what was going to happen were Lee Power, Jean Brewer, Larry Gates, Dottie Clouse, Carol Duke, and Betty Malott. Several of the boys went out for basketball. Margie Ross, Lynda Sells, and Nancy Morton did a good job as cheerleaders. Although we were working under the handicap brought on by the school burning down, we had a very enjoyable time. Our sponsor was Mr. James Rosenstihl.

We were very excited our sophomore year when we moved into the new building. Those who entered during the year were Don Blackwell, Nancy Day, Sue Carpenter, Shirley McCormick, Barbara Ogle, and Kay Smithey. Our class was honored that year when Lynda Sells was elected queen of the Snow Dance, and Kay Kiphart was chosen majorette. The class officers were: Marcia Whitaker, President; Phil Plummer, Vice-President; Betty Malott, Secretary-Treasurer; and Kay Kiphart, Student Council. Our sponsors were Mrs. Mary Fisher and Mr. Johnny Male.

The busiest year in our high school career was our junior year. We worked very hard selling concessions to make money for a prom and trip to Washington, D.C. The prom, which was held in the Marble Room of the Marott Hotel, was the big social event of the year. Everyone who attended enjoyed it a great deal. The class officers were: Kay Kiphart, President; Joyce Core, Vice-President; Sue Doty, Secretary; Lynda Sells, Treasurer; and Phyllis Clearwater, Student Council. We were well represented in sports with Larry Percy on the basketball team, while Fred Nuffer, Don Blackwell, Jim Dresslar, Bob King, Lee Power, and Jack Ramsey played football. Sandy Day and Joyce Core were elected cheerleaders. The people who helped us through the year were our sponsors, Mrs. Vera Fulmer, and Mr. Marvin Hawkins.

We went into our senior year looking forward to being the best of all classes past, present, and future. Several students received honors during the year. Sandy Day and Joyce Core were elected cheerleaders, Kay Kiphart was chosen majorette leader, Phyllis Clearwater and Don Blackwell were king and queen of the Holly Dance at Christmastime, and the trophy for making the first touchdown in football was awarded to Don Blackwell. Our trip to Washington, D.C. was one of the highlights of the year, especially when we found that we were the first class to make the trip by train. Russell Martin was the only addition we had during the year. The class play, under the direction of Mrs. Claire Gaddy, was hard work, but it was worth the effort, when it turned out to be a big success. Our senior sponsors were Mrs. Vera Fulmer and Mr. Marvin Hawkins.

I, Howard Peters, will my ability to stay away from girls to Lloyd Willis.

Ten years have now passed since the Center Grove Seniors of 1957 have graduated. The three of us made a research of all our classmates to see what these dignified seniors turned out to be.

Joyce Core is the head dietician and slop slinger at Punk Percy's Cafe in Yellow Willers, Indiana. Also in the restaurant business is Ray Stewart, a chef at Chong Kong's Restaurant in Chinatown, San Francisco.

After working himself up from a school teacher to a principal and from a principal to a college professor, Lee Power has become the President of Georgia Tech University. Don Blackwell is the all-star football player at the University of Kentucky.

The richest and most successful man in Strassburg's Department Store in New York is Freddie Nuffer, who is the head designer of men's clothing. Lee Wolverton is the best model they have for modeling men's bathing suits. Also, modeling at Macy's Department Store in New York is Beverly Boltz.

Sandy Day is a newslady, you might say, selling newspapers on a street corner in Indianapolis. Jackie Strouse is a very successful elevator operator in the Leaning Tower of Pisa. We found out the other day that Jean Brewer is a stewardess in the L. G. A. (Larry Gates's Airlines.)

Norman Ford isn't quite as lucky as Don Borski, who is an owner of a chain of Texaco Stations. Norman just owns the Thrifty Corner Gas Station.

One of the biggest nights at Madison Square Garden will be when the feather-weight champion, Jack Ramsey, appears in the boxing arena. The last we heard of Barbara Ogle, she was a rodeo rider and bronco buster in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Bob King, the young, and up-coming television comedian, appeared on the Howard Peters' All-Star Western Review the other night. Phyllis Clearwater is the famous singer with the Jazz band of Roy Swartz.

Chestora Royston has become a multimillionaire as an artist. One of her well-known masterpieces is "Old C. G. High." Carol Duke is the choir leader of the Bangersville Symphony Choir, (all of which there are 10 members.)

Bob Wise and Suzy Stewart, of Wise and Stewart Hell Drivers Inc., are trying to teach Kay Smithey how to be a hell driver. (They don't have to try very hard.)

We heard that one of our very own classmates was the 500-Mile winner this year. He was none other than Oren Hyatt. One of the most reckless taxi drivers in Paris is Ruby Demaree. (And to think that she was Miss Betty Crocker in high school.)

A big man nowadays in Washington, (Indiana), is four-star General, William Meek. Rushh Reynolds, the President of the United States has just issued a statement banning English as a requirement in Center Grove High School. Sue Doty is Miss Sophisticate of 1967.

Dottie Clouse is now a maid at the mansion of Jenile Weddle, who became a millionaire by modeling Tycora sweaters. Betty Mallott is a traveling saleslady and uses her old car, Rosebud, which she has had since her high school days.

Billie Duke, of course lives in Tennessee and is the owner of the biggest moonshine still in them thar' hills. Eleanor DeMott has started a chain of Court Taverns all over the United States.

One of the largest chains of root beer and hot dog stands in the U.S.A. is owned by Kay Kiphart and Marcia Whitaker. They call their big Business the K and W Curly Dog Stands.

The most listened to disc jockeys on station C G T X is Russell Martin, the rock and roll cat. Next to Liberace, the greatest pianist in the world is Margie Ross? Janice Hawkins is a famous opera star in the Metropolitan Opera. She is the only one in opera history who can hold a single musical note for four minutes without taking a breath.

Bernadine See owns and trains over 150 thoroughbred horses in the bluegrass state of Kentucky. Shirley McCormick, her long time friend, helps her by cleaning out the stables.

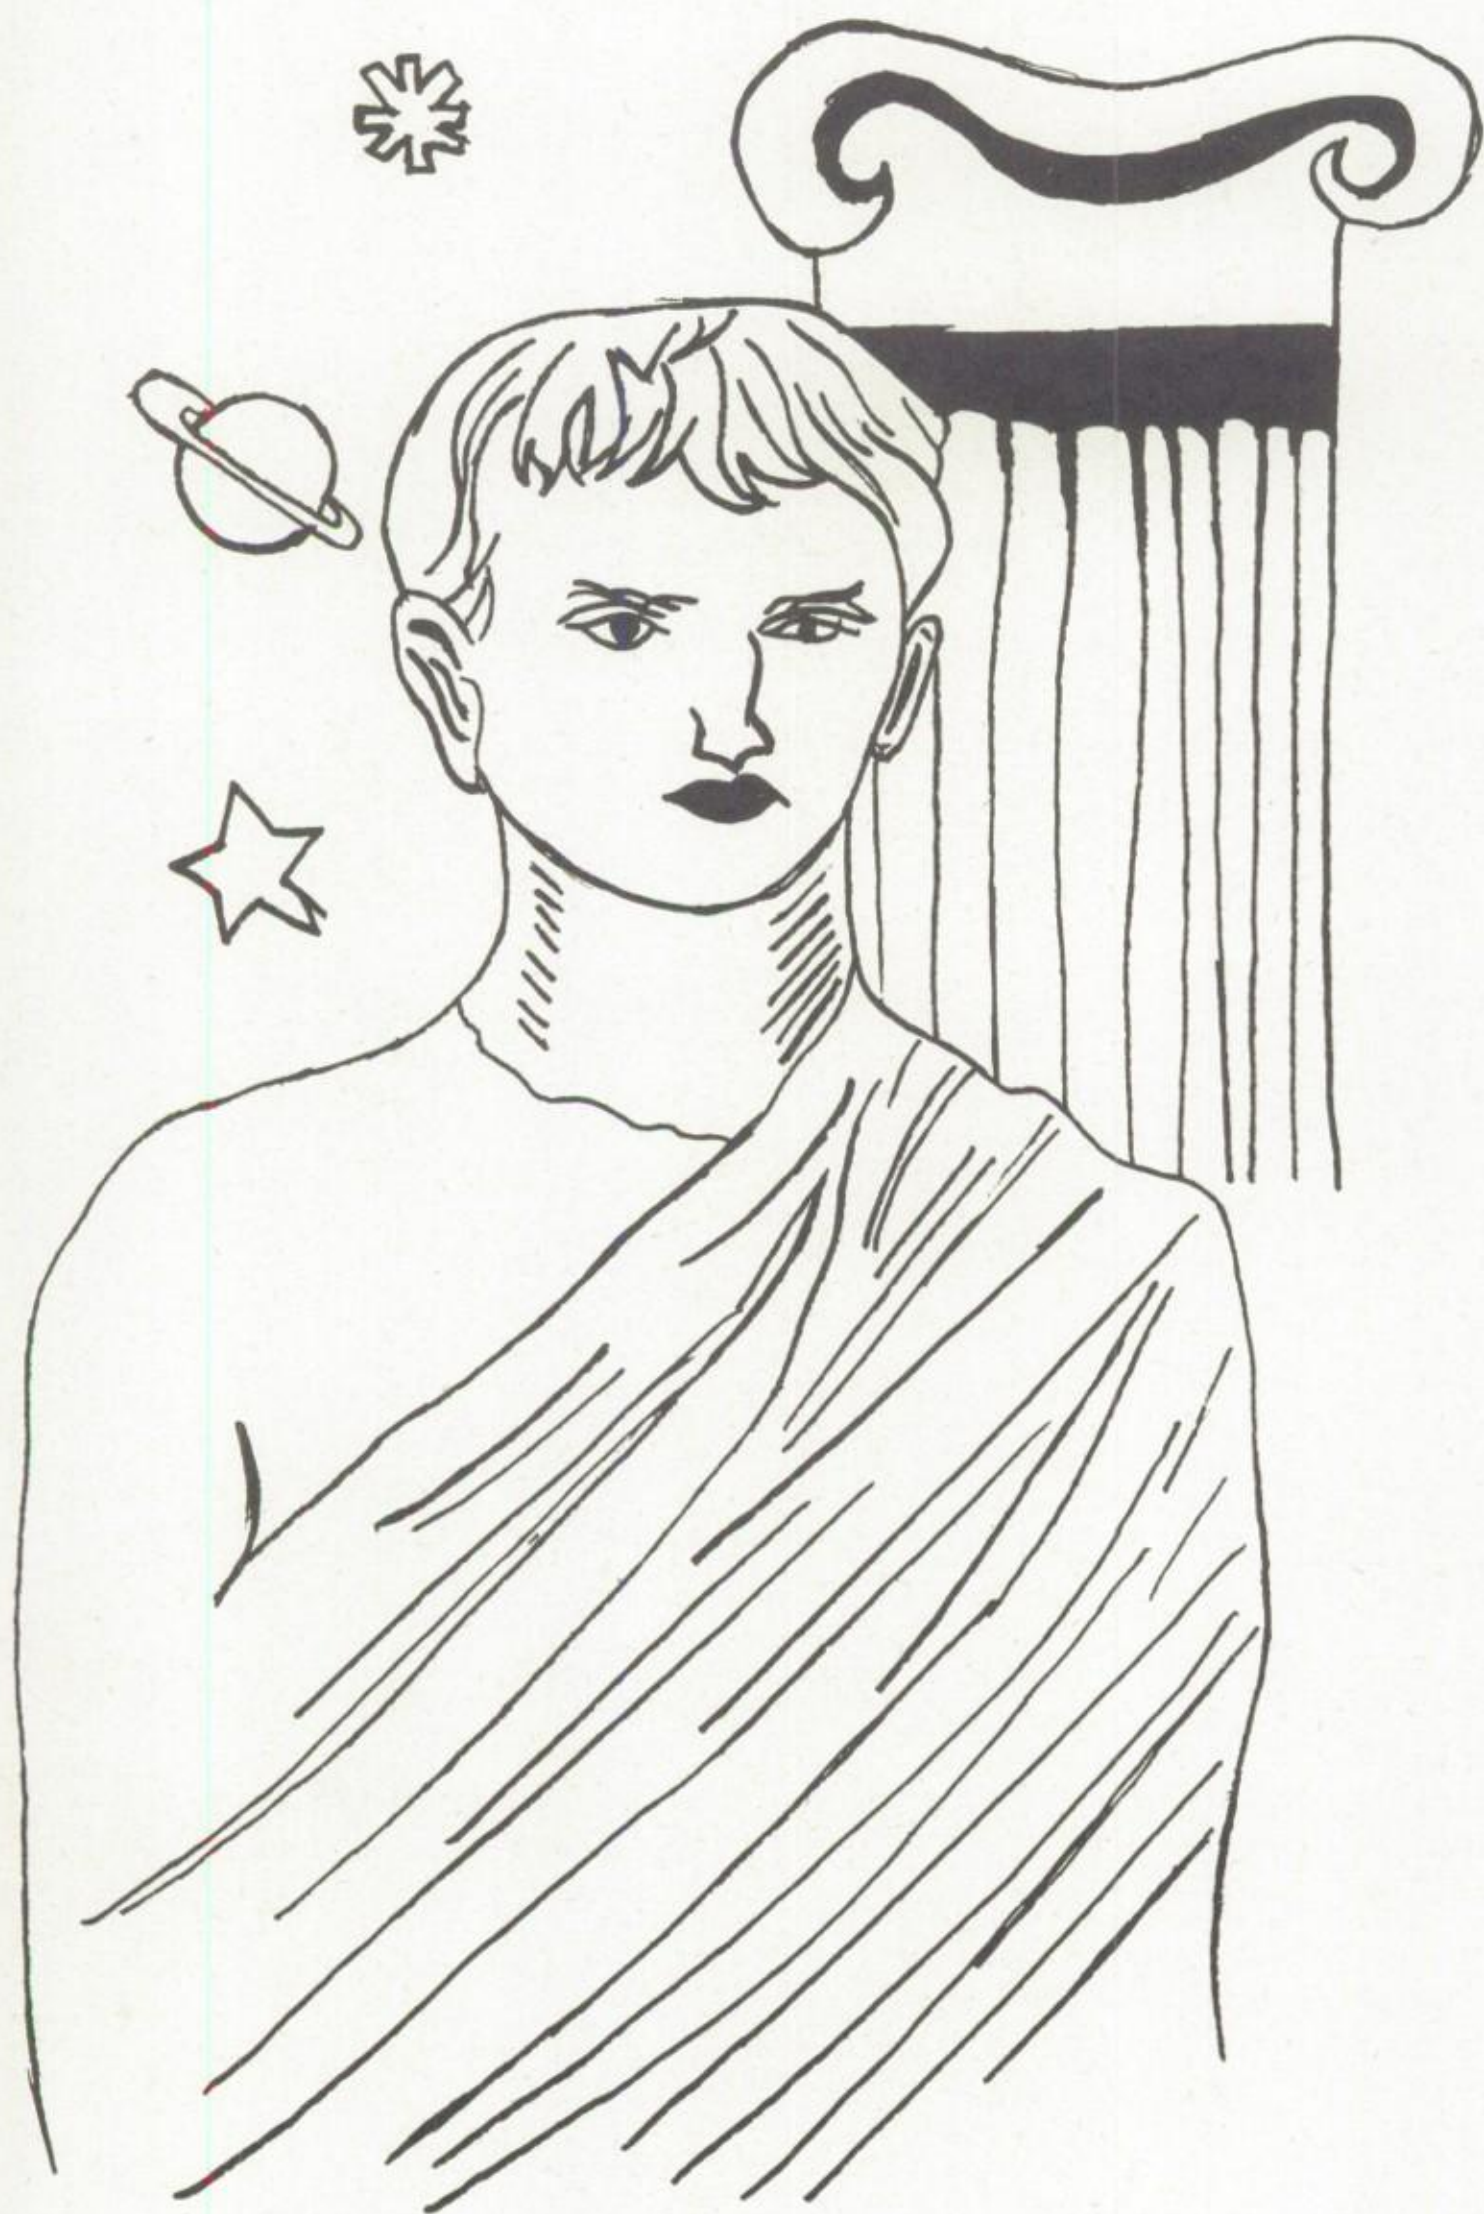

Jimmy Dresslar has become the first man to reach the moon in the new X-100 Rocket Ship. At last report he was still there, trying to get back.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Plummer are happily married and the last we heard of them, they had traveled abroad to France on a second honeymoon.

SOCIETY

OFFICERS

Mrs. Claire Gaddy, Sponsor; Lynette Bock, Corresponding Secretary; Marcia Whitaker, President; Carol Vawter, Recording Secretary; Sandy Day, Treasurer; Mrs. Vera Fulmer, Sponsor. ABSENT: Marcia Brazee, Vice-President.

The Sunshine Society consists of 104 members. The officers are: Marcia Whitaker, President; Marcia Brazee, Vice-President; Sandy Day, Treasurer; Lynette Bock, Corresponding Secretary; Carol Vawter, Recording Secretary; Nancy Gray, Song Leader; and Kay Smithy, Reporter. Our sponsors are Mrs. Vera Fulmer and Mrs. Claire Gaddy.

The symbol of Sunshine is the rising sun, the motto is "Others," our colors are yellow and white, the flower is a yellow rose, and our song is "My Sunshine Girl."

Meetings are held every other Wednesday. This year Sunshine has been very busy from the first day of school to the last.

The first thing we undertook was the making of Thanksgiving Fruit Baskets to be given to the shut-ins of the community. At Christmas time gifts of clothing were given to several needy children. Also, we donated $100 to the Riley Hospital Fund. A Christmas dance was held in the library on December 21. The Holly King and Queen, Don Blackwell and Phyllis Clearwater, both seniors, reigned over the dance.

Several girls attended the District Convention at Fortville, Indiana, in October. They were: Marcia Whitaker, Margie Ross, Ruth Ann Featherston, Nancy Hill, Janet Weddle, Jenile Weddle, Sue Doty, Beverly Boltz, and Barbara Ogle. The State Convention was held at Rensselaer, Indiana, in April.
